PERMISSION FOR COMMITTEE ON SCIENCE TO HAVE UNTIL 4 P.M. ON FRIDAY, AUGUST 29, 2003, TO FILE CERTAIN REPORTS

Mr. BOEHLERT. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on Science may have until 4 p.m. Friday, August 29, 2003 to file the following late reports: H.R. 1085, NASA Flexibility Act of 2003, as amended; H.R. 2608, National Earthquake Hazards Reduction Program Reauthorization Act of 2003, as amended; H.R. 2692, the United States Fire Administration Authorization Act of 2003, as amended; H.R. 2734, Federal Aviation Administration Research and Development Reauthorization Act, as amended; and finally, H.R. 2801, Minority Serving Institution Digital and Wireless Technology Opportunity Act of 2003, as amended.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.

EXPRESSING CONGRATULATIONS AND APPRECIATION TO EVE BUTLER-GEE, CHIEF JOURNAL CLERK, ON HER RETIREMENT

(Mr. DREIER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. DREIER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask my colleagues who are still in the Chamber if they could give their attention to the remarks that I am about to make.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to draw the attention of my colleagues to Eve Butler-Gee, who is sitting right here, who is our Chief Journal Clerk. Eve will be retiring at the end of next month after 20 years of stellar service to the United States House of Representatives. She was appointed to her position by the former minority leader, Bob Michel, and she has had a very, very, very great career, spending many, many late nights, tonight is just another example of that, working very, very hard in behalf of this institution.

Mr. Speaker, let me say, too rarely do we recognize the diligent efforts that are put into the work offered by so many of our wonderful staff members. I have had the opportunity to sit up there in the chair late at night with Eve sitting right there, and she is going to be with her husband, Tom, retiring, and I know that they are going have many, many wonderful years together.

I would like all of my colleagues to join me in a round of applause for the great service that Eve has provided to us.

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. DREIER. I yield to the gentleman from Texas.

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, it is my pleasure to join with the distinguished gentleman from California. Eve deserves our applause for just a moment.

I would like to simply add our appreciation for such an attractive lady. It makes the evening late hours that much more pleasant to be able to see your smiling face. You have been here with many of us who believe it is important to communicate to our colleagues on the important issues of America. We thank you for being an outstanding public servant.

I said that I would be able to stay here to be with you this evening. Thank you for being a great American. Congratulations to you, and many, many best wishes for many, many good years to come on behalf of all of us.

Mr. DREIER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman for her contribution.

I yield briefly to the gentleman from Kansas (Mr. TIAHRT).
